POOR'SHOW FOR COKE

The Epidemic of Burglary Still Continues to be Rampant.

ALL THE NEWS FROM NEAR-BY TOWNS

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.; CONNELLSVILLE, April 4 .- The Courier, in its coke trade review, will say to-morrow The coke trade continues to ebb. Production, which has been slowly but steadily deereasing during March, took a decided plunge in rounding out the month, and showed a total considerably smaller than that of any previous week during the past six months. Upon the whole the trade cannot be said to be encouraging. The pig iron markets begin to show signs of weakness again and a further decline is feared. Such a decline will force many furnaces temporarily out of blast, and materially curtail the demand for coke, compel the shutting down of a considerable number of ovens and pretty effectually destroy all hopes of a revival in the coke trade before fall. Prices are no longer being maintained, and there is a lively competition among the larger operators. The result is that some of the works are being run on less than half time, and a large number of ovens will have to be blown out soon unless there is an early revival in trade. The operations of the 77 coke plants in the Conneilsville region for the last week in March shows 11,457 of the completed ovens in blast and 1,899 idie.

The record for the previous week showed 11,611 active and 1,650 idhe ovens. The active ovens, which have been averaging five days per week for some time past dropped back to 114, and the estimated production fell from 110,122 tons to 21,057 tons, or about 9 per cent. Prices have settled down about 10 cents below the rate heretofore railing and quotations are as follows: Furnace coke, $1 15; to dealers, $1 25; foundry coke, $1 40; crushed coke, $2 00; all on board cars at ovens, per ton of 2,000 pounds. run on less than half time, and a large number

MURDERED FOR MONEY. A Man With an Uneasy Conscience Reveals

a Horrible Crime. NEWARK, April 4.- The conduct of two men excited the suspicions of Officer Henry Lauf-ter last night, and he took them in charge. They were both foreigners, and unable to speak a word of English. The officer, who is a German, addressed them in that language, and from one, who was also a German, he learned that their names were John Schmidt and William Michalowsky. The latter is a Bohemian, and appeared as though he was haunted by the thought of some terrible crime, when questioned he partially admitted that he and his companion had been guilty of a crime, but seemed fearful of the consequences if he confessed. The officer told him that he would have no peace of mind until he made known the trouble, if a wrong had been done.

After considerable hesitancy the man Schmidt unbosomed himself, and told the policeman that he and his companion had two mouths ago been hired to morder a woman in the city of New York, and for doing the job had received the sum of $50. She was a widow by the name of Lavin, and resided on Forty-first street, but what number they could not give. The deed had been accomplished, he naid, by the administration of poison furnished by the person employing them to do the work. The mane of this person was not given. So impressed was the officer with the truthfulness of the story that he detained the supposed murderers here, and has telegraphed to the authorities in New York to learn the facts. The men will be held here until word has been received.

BURGLARS AT BEAVER.

They Make a Bold Attempt on the Palace of Justice Itself. BEAVER, April 4.-Burglars last night attempted to blow open the safe in the freasurer's office at the Court House. The doors leading into the outer and inner offices were forced open with a jimmy. A hole was bored in the top of the safe in the outer office and an attempt made to blow it open. The back was somewhat sprung, but no entrance was effected.

The safe is used as a receptacle for books, offer, and if you don't want to buy call and interest them for your want to buy call and interest them for your want to buy call and interest them for your want to buy call and interest them for the doors. The safe is used as a receptacle for books, papers, etc., and for money during the day. papers, etc., and for money during the day. The handle and combination of the door of the vault were broken off with a sledge, powder inserted and an attempt made to blow it open. The attempt failed, and the project was abandoued for some reason unknown. They also forced an entrance into the Shgriffs and dommissioners' offices and into that of the Clerk of Courts, and thence they invaded the office of the District Attorney. A drawer in the office of the Clerk of Courts was broken onen and Staken. John Rising, clerk in the office of the Register and Recorder, was working at his desk in the inner room last night. About II o'clock he heard footsteps at intervals and noticed persons bovering about the vals and noticed persons hovering about the door of the other room, which was dark. He paid no attention to them, however, supposing that it was the janitor or some of the officers

ONE SUSPECT IN JAIL.

An Arrest Finally Made of One of the Alleged Fayette Fiends.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. UNIONTOWN, April 4.-When the McClelandtown robberies and outrages were committed Henry Williams was digging coal for John Woods near Searight. This is between bere and Brownsville, and not far off from the scene of the outlaws' raid. Williams went to Fairchance a day or two after the robberies, and has been working there since then until today, when he was arrested and lodged in jall, charged with being one of the perpetrators by Andrew J. Lilly, one of the victims who was tortured.

While Williams has been suspected from the start, the District Attorney says he believes they have enough evidence to convict him, but does not want the defense to learn what they know. Williams claims that he can prove that be was in the house of John Camp whom he boarded, the night of the outra and says the first he knew that he was pected was when the constable arrested his FREEFORT, April 4 .- A man giving the name of Phillip Hetrick, of Heathville, Jefferson county, landed here to-night on a raft. He county, landed here to night on a raft. He went to Thomas Renshaw's drugstore and passed a counterfeit dollar on him. Mr. Renshaw discovered it and put an officer on his track, who arrested him in a short time. He was taken before 'Squire Ingersoll and searched. Twenty bogus silver dollars and 40 bogus dimes were found on his person. Hetrick was placed in jail to await orders from the United States District Attorney.

A Jury Secured to Try Ben Clark. PAPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCHAL WAYNESBURG, April 4 -The twelfth man for the jury which is to try Ben Clark for the murder of William McCausland, was chosen to-day der of William McCausiand, was chosen to-day just before the adjournment of court at noon. The selection of a jury occupied two days. The evidence was commenced this afternoon. The prisoner had assumed a bold appearance in the courtroom until it was stated in the opening address to the jury that the Commonwealth would offer evidence to prove him on the scene at the time the crime was committed, when his face showed agitation.

Bargiars More Than Numerous. WEST BRIDGEWATER, PA., April 4.-Bur-

West Religious area. FA., April 4.—Burglarnes were epidemic last night. Thieves entered the Park Hotel some time during the night and appropriated various articles, among them a fee dollars, some cigars and whisky. There seems to be a gang working the valley, with a special aptitude for cracking safes that contain little or nothing in the way of cash. Wrecked by an Explosion.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE. WHEELING, April 4.-At noon to-day men working in the warehouse of the Wheeling Natural Gas Company, at Bridgeport, went to dinner, leaving a large valve open and light burning. About 15 minutes after leaving an explosion occurred that completely wrecked the building. No person injured.

Death From the Bite of a Cat. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.
